OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of this course is to familiarize students with contemporary Israeli culture in all of its diversity. Since the founding of the State in 1948, Israeli society has faced a series of dramatic challenges and has undergone tremendous changes. This course will survey the major social, cultural, religious and political trends in Israel, with special emphasis on the post-1967 period. We will explore developments in music, dance, poetry, and archaeology; responses to founding ideals and ideologies; the impact of the Arab-Israeli conflict; efforts to absorb new waves of immigration and to deal with questions of ethnicity; and the roles of religion and secularism in Israeli society. We will draw on a broad range of material, including print media, films, and YouTube clips.

By the end of the course, students should have an insight into the complexity of Israeli society and the richness of Israeli culture, as well as an understanding of Israel’s role in Jewish life, the Middle East, and the world at large.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION (10%):
1. You are expected to attend all class sessions.
2. You are expected to read all assigned material.
3. You should be prepared to participate in class discussions of assigned readings and videos shown in class. You are responsible for all of the material covered in class, even if you are absent.

ABSENCES:
Three or more absences for reasons other than medical or family emergencies will result in a reduction of your final grade. Absences for medical or family emergencies require written proof.

READING SUMMARY (5%):
Each student will be responsible for presenting the class with a five-minute summary of at least one of the assigned sets of readings during the course of the semester. Reading summary assignments are on Carmen. In summarizing, you should present the main points clearly and concisely. The typescript of your reading summary is due on the date that you present your summary orally.
HOMEWORK (20%):
There are five written homework assignments printed on the syllabus. They are due on 1/11, 2/13, 2/20, 3/22, and 4/3. Each response should be 250 words long. Please answer only one of the two questions listed for each assignment. Homework assignments are due in Carmen Assignments before class on the specified due date. Homework assignments must refer to the assigned readings on that topic. Grading will be based on the clarity of your writing, maximum coverage of substantive points, and phrasing things in your own words.

ORAL PRESENTATIONS (30%):
Each student will be required to deliver a 15-minute PowerPoint presentation on an individualized topic to be chosen in consultation with the instructor. You will be required to consult at least four printed sources and to hand in your script and a bibliography. A list of topics and detailed guidelines will be posted on Carmen. PowerPoints are due in Carmen Assignments before class on Feb 22, 2017.

FINAL EXAMINATION (35%):
The final will be in class on Wednesday, April 19, 2017. The final will examine all of the material covered in the course. The date of this exam cannot be changed. No make-up exams will be scheduled. A study guide will be posted on Carmen in advance of the exam.

GE CATEGORY: Cultures and Ideas
EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES:
1. Students develop abilities to analyze, appreciate, and interpret major forms of human thought and expression.
2. Students develop abilities to understand how ideas influence the character of human beliefs, the perception of reality, and the norms which guide human behavior.

Students will be expected to keep up with current events in Israel, using on-line versions of Israeli newspapers and other websites. Especially useful sites:
www.haaretz.com (Haaretz newspaper--portions now require a subscription)
www.mfa.gov.il/MFA (the Ministry of Foreign Affairs)
www.jewishvirtuallibrary.org (See the excellent bibliography of websites)

STUDENT CONDUCT:
Students are reminded that they are responsible for obeying the University’s rules regarding academic misconduct as set forth in the Code of Student Conduct.

DISABILITY SERVICES
Students with disabilities that have been certified by the Office for Disability Services will be appropriately accommodated, and should inform the instructor as soon as possible of their needs. The Office for Disability Services is located in 150 Pomerene Hall, 1760 Neil Avenue;

Homework questions (Answer one set in 250 words):

1. Explain the following: “In the fifties and sixties… archaeology was a part of the Zionist enterprise. To a large extent, it was part of the great connection to the past, proof of our rights in the land. Today, archaeology is much more professional… detached from any national or religious bias. We are trying to reconstruct the ancient period in this country, without emphasizing the role of the Israelites or of a Jewish state.” (Amichai Mazar, p. 338)

2. Imagine you were a volunteer helping to excavate Massada in 1963-65. Write a page from your journal reflecting your experiences on the dig.
